

Envy of the Seas

JEFFRY HAMILTON STEELE

fiddle:

violin

voices

D G A G D/F# A Bm

vln (vcs)

vcs (fl)

G Bm A D D G A

No!
Hah!
Yes!
Me!

Would you like to crew her? And sail the o - pen sea? There'll be She's built just like a cas - tle. Her hull will ne - ver leak. No
Would you pre - fer the farm life? Work in a fac - to - ry? But the So who will board this ves - sel? Mu - sic to my ears! For a

vcs (fl)

G D/F# A Bm G C Bm A

cod for the take, lots of hal - i - but and hake with a fat share gua - ran - teed. Do se - ven sto - ry wave is gon - na take you to your grave; Such a big seas are a freak. And best that you will find might be sla - ving in a mine. Why not ride the lone prai - rie? Come crew that sings in tune can tame a ty - phoon And sail for ma - ny years

vln (vcs)

vcs (fl)

D G A

No!
Right!
Knot!
Ho!

you have what it takes men? It's not all drud - ge - ry. When you you'll be home for Christ - mas. Sweet ca - rols ye shall sing. Tho' it's learn to tie the bow - line, Know wind - ward from the lee. But if I know where the fish are And how to clear each reef. If you

G D/F# A Bm G Bm A D

step back on land you will fin' - lly be a man and no more be in need. Come hard to be pre-cise when you're packed in by the ice un - til the end of Spring. We you're no good at swim-min', don't know how to talk to wo-men, You won't learn that at sea. Now go and ask the mate He'll say I ex-ag-ge-rate But I say he's a thief. And

G Em F#m D Em Em&9 G6 G

all ye strong and stout hand - li - ners, all ye dirt - poor Ma - ri - ti - mers, Ne - ver have ye sailed such boats as al - ways give a fair per - cen - tage, once we've co - vered our ex - pen - ses. Be the one fair la - dies want to some, and you know who you are, your pay all squan - dered at the bar, come crawl - ing back from Main Street on your once you come to know me, lad, you'll find that I'm just like your dad. And one point on which e - v'ry - one a -

vln (vcs)

A tacet

these!
 please!
 knees!
 grees:

For a
 For a
 For a
 That a

vln (vcs)

1.2.

Bm F#m G C 1.2. D

schoo - ner out of Glou - c'ster is the en - vy of the seas.

vln (vcs)

vcs (f)

3.

3.

seas!

vln (vcs)

vcs (f)

vln (vcs)

vcs (f)

vln (vcs)

vcs (f)

vln (vcs)

vcs (f)

dal segno

dal segno