To Whom It May Concern:

Jeffry Steele has asked me to write a letter of recommendation for him. I am pleased and delighted to be able to do so.

I have come to know Jeffry through his involvement at Camp Calumet Lutheran, a Lutheran church camp and year round retreat and conference center. For the past several years Jeffry has come as a guest at one of our family programs at the end of the summer. He has always been willing and eager to share his wonderful musical talents as part of our program to the pleasure and enjoyment of all. Last year, I asked him if he would be willing to be the music resource leader for the program to which he readily agreed. We couldn't have been more pleased!

As the musical resource leader, Jeffry was responsible for all the music for our daily worship opportunities as well as leading a choir that practiced daily throughout the week and shared several selections at our closing worship at the end of the week. Jeffry came well prepared with a whole host of music for folks to learn, enjoy and share. From contemporary music to selections that he had composed himself, everyone enjoyed the pieces he brought and shared. His teaching style was easy and well-received by all. He developed a great rapport with those he was leading and was instrumental in creating an inspirational, music-filled closing worship experience that was a culmination of a fantastic week. We were blessed to have had Jeffry as a leader for the week as he added much to the programs success.

Sincerely,

Paul W. Lindahl
